

Jack Holden (John)

July 18, 1929 - January 16, 2020

Predeceased by his first wife Shirley Holden and second wife Doreen Anderson. Jack is survived by his two children, Lori Holden-Mooney (Kevin) and Bill Holden (Tina) and immediate grandchildren Aura and Lee, Karrina and Krista and his stepsons Ron (Diane), Doug (Judy), Rich (Carolyn), Bruce (Gerry) and Don (Barbara) and their 10 grandchildren, Dominique and Danielle, Sarah (Jacob) and Ryan, Kevin (Liz) and Will, Charlotte and Lauren, Ben and Finn.

Jack was born in Regina, SK, during the depression and moved to BC at the age of 3. He lived out the rest of his years in the Vancouver area, other than a short stint in Nanaimo. Jack had a long career with MacMillan Bloedel and was very proud of his accomplishments with them. Jack was also proud of both of his marriages and outlived both of his wives, which led to his biggest complaint of being lonely in old age. He was also very proud of the cabin he built with Doreen and the Anderson boys on Bowen Island, he talked of that often. In the later part of his life, Jack often spoke of how lucky he had been, and how happy he was with how everything in his life turned out. Not a bad way to feel before your time comes. He will be missed and remembered by those left behind. It is hard not to smile at his last scotch escapade, here's to you Jack. :)

There will be no funeral or memorial as per Jack's wishes.
